

The Recorded Miracles of Jesus

“And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.”
 (Matthew 17:20)

Teaching in Parables

“And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parable. And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are without, all these things are done in parables: That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them. And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables?” (Mark 4:10-13)

The Book of John contains no true Parables. It does, however, contain two allegories. In John 10:1-16, the Savior presents the allegory of the good shepherd. In John 15:1-7, He presents the allegory of the vine and the branches.
