CONTINGENCY PLANS FOR SBFFC MAIN EVENT

(should the NFL have unexpected changes to its season)

Should the NFL regular season be shut down for any reason before the completion of Week 6 and not resume after that, the SBFFC will refund/credit $175 entry fees and no prizes will be awarded. If the NFL completes week 6, the season shall be considered a viable fantasy season. Should the NFL season end early for any circumstance, including but not limited to work stoppage, facilities, natural disaster, disease, or terrorism, the contest will end when the National Football League cancels the remainder of the season. At that time winners will be declared and prizes awarded via LeagueSafe in accordance with the league standings.

If a viable fantasy season is not reached, $175 from each team will be returned to their LeagueSafe accounts. Please note regular season weeks do not need to be consecutive. However, should the NFL season be suspended or delayed, the SBFFC MAIN EVENT will pause and resume when the NFL season resumes. Weekly payouts such as possible Overtime Sports Bar & Grill gift cards & FanDuel vouchers, will be paid weekly as usual to high point total winners.

ALTERNATE PAYOUT PLANS FOR SBFFC MAIN EVENT (should the NFL have unexpected changes to its season)

Should the NFL season be suspended or delayed and discontinued, for any reason, with six (6) or more official weeks played (weeks do not need to be consecutive), the SBFFC LIVE DRAFT will become official and prizes will be awarded in the manner described below.

WHEN VIABLE SEASON REACHED

(AFTER NFL WEEK 6, BUT BEFORE START OF NFL WEEK 11)

If the NFL Season is discontinued any time after, the viable season measured above is official, but before the start of the league playoffs (Week 12), the Championship & Consolation, will NOT be awarded to individual teams based on standings at the time of NFL season discontinuance.

However, in this case, the SBFFC MAIN EVENT will combine all Leagues 1-4 seeds, Championship Round prizes, Consolation prizes, Toilet Bowl prizes, and Divisional prizes per division and disperse them in the following manner:

- All league 1-Seeds will evenly share 33% of the unclaimed prize money
- All league 2-Seeds will evenly share 33% of the unclaimed prize money
- All league 3-Seeds will evenly share 17% of the unclaimed prize money
- All league 4-seeds will evenly share 17% of the unclaimed prize money

Ex. - NFL season ends after (8) weeks. Team A is in first place in its league and has the most overall points in the entire contest. Team A receives its share of the 33 percent of the overall prize pool remaining allotted to league number one seeds. Team A does NOT receive the $5,000 grand prize.

(AFTER NFL WEEK 11, BUT BEFORE END OF NFL WEEK 13)

If the NFL discontinues its season upon completion of Week 11, but before the end of Week 12 or Week 13, the SBFFC MAIN EVENT will pay out regular season prizes as usual via regular season payouts. The remaining prizes will follow the below contingency plan to determine prizes as per the original prize structures in each contest.

If Season Ends in Week 12 but before Week 13 begins: The divisional playoff prizes & championship prizes will be awarded as a split to each of the remaining teams in the championship round in this manner: 41% will go to each Week 12 divisional playoff winner (82% total), 9% will go to each Week 12 divisional playoff loser (18% total). The consolation and toilet bowl prizes will be paid via the current standings of the leaderboard at the time of discontinued/canceled season.

If the Season Ends in Week 13: Week 13 Divisional Championship prizes will be paid as usual according to website scoreboard, Championship Weeks 14-16 prizes will be paid according to the championship total points current leaderboard at the end of Week 13. The consolation and toilet bowl prizes will be paid via the current standings of the leaderboard at the time of the discontinued/canceled season.

(AFTER NFL WEEK 11, BUT BEFORE END OF NFL WEEK 13)

If the NFL discontinues its season upon completion of Week 14, 15 or 16, the SBFFC MAIN EVENT will use the current standing of the Championship, Consolation and Toilet Round leaderboards to determine prizes as per the original prize structures in each contest.
