Moartz Inc. Founding Principles:

- To provide opportunities for skills development of groups and individuals through workshops, demonstrations, artists in residence programs.
- To celebrate the community's diversity, achievements and aspirations, aiming to provide stimulus through the arts for education, development, optimism and pride for existing and future generations.
- To enliven the profile of MOaRTZ and Regional Arts Victoria through the celebration of arts in the community.
- To make various arts' disciplines available and accessible to the wider community.
- To actively promote the involvement and artistic engagement of the regions' community (including children and senior citizens) in a diverse range of arts activities.
- To accomplish ongoing improvements in regional arts imaging and marketing.
- To undertake and promote touring arts exhibitions and performances.
- To foster both formal and informal links between individuals and groups involved in creative expression.
- To create links with other regional arts groups.
