

Readington Cited As One Of Safest New Jersey Towns

March 1, 2015

Based on comprehensive research, Safewise.com named Readington #16 on their list of the 50 safest communities in NJ. Safewise.com states: "Noted for its picturesque rural landscape, recreational trails and preservation initiatives, Readington is a New Jersey community worth considering moving to." Safewise.com goes on to describe the great variety of recreational activities in town and concludes with, "above all, this historically agricultural community is safe".

Here's what Safewise.com wrote:

Readington Cited As One Of Safest NJ Towns

"Noted for its picturesque rural landscape, recreational trails and preservation initiatives, Readington is a New Jersey community worth considering moving to. Outdoor enthusiasts will be thrilled to learn Readington takes great care in maintaining a top-notch selection of trails, and those with a green thumb are extended an open invitation to join the produce producing folks at the Readington Community Garden.

Its eclectic collection of museums offers living history, a chance to peak at local artifacts and a range of activities for every member of your family- such as cultural and educational programs. Summer camps, fitness and wellness programs, after-school care and environmental lessons are just a few of the gems offered by Readington's Recreation Department. Above all, this historically agricultural community is safe- having reported no murders or rapes in 2011."

Read Safewise.com article >>

Learn More at www.CitizensforReadington.org

like us on Facebook Citizens For Readington

Copyright Citizens for Readington 2015 All Rights Reserved

Citizens for Readington

Box 243 Three Bridges, New Jersey 08887