

Lighthouse Quilters Guild

Sew on and Sew Forth

I spent some time perusing other guild web sites and found the guilds are very much like ours. Quilting for the community was at the top of the list. Monthly programs with great speakers to inspire members were a must. A quilt show, raffle quilt, along with membership dues, were the only means to fund the many programs guilds want to promote. We aren't unique and we aren't so different from our quilting sisters.

It may be that you are a returning or new member, or a guest attending a first meeting and felt lost and alone. We are happy you have decided to join our guild if only for an evening. It will take a meeting or two until you feel you "fit in" just as it has taken time to master your quilting skills. Don't give up on us or yourself. You'll be up front and joining Show & Tell in no time. We hope our speakers and workshops inspire you to try something new.

I hope you plan to join us for our annual rummage sale and picnic at our July meeting. This is a fantastic time to pick up some great buys to add to your stash. There will be time to shop before our general meeting. See you there.

Holiday Party

About our July Event...

It's our annual picnic and rummage sale!

The supper will begin at 6:00. Check the information on page 3 to see what you are asked to share. Menu categories are assigned by your last name in the alphabet.

Place your donated sale items on the table of your choice: $1.00, $3.00, $5.00

Items that may be sold for a higher price will go on a table for bidding.

There will be time before the business meeting to do some shopping and bidding.

Hi from your Historian.

Lately I have been having problems taking pictures for the guild and I thought you could help. Please allow tall people to hold up your quilt. You can easily talk about your project. Tall people please don't wave the quilt it blurs the picture. Then leave the microphone and stand by your quilt. Smile. I will say "got it" when I get the shot. You are going down in history. Also, if you want to submit obits and articles of interest for the book. You can give them to me at the meeting or submit to joanmkraus@aol.com.

Keep Quilting. Thank you, Joan Kraus

Don't forget to share posts on Facebook with your friends.

Reminder:

Please note that the doors are locked on our meeting nights. A member of the hospitality committee will greet you and let you in until 7:00. If you arrive after 7:00, please call the phone number posted by the committee, and someone will come up to let you in.

Pool Noodles Are a Big Help in the Sewing Room

Dorothy Broihier shared a handy use for quilt storage when folding is not easy. Check out your local sporting goods section for a bargain on pool noodles and put them to a unique use. Check out this web site for some great tips:

Lighthouse Legacies Quilt Show 2019

Sharon and I thank those of you that we invited to serve as Chairs of various Quilt Show committees and have said "yes"!!! We are still looking for a few more volunteers to complete the committee positions. We are hoping you will say "yes" to one of the following:

Bed turning

Boutique (need one more volunteer)

Floor Design (Work with Pat Barry)

Take Down

These are very important to the success of the show, and will make an easier job for the committee if they are filled soon.

Please let us know if you have questions about any of these positions. We have a great deal of information for you and guidance from previous chairs as well. You can contact me at 920-265-9758 or via email at: jmartin121845@gmail.com.

Judy Martin

Did you Know???

Several of our newer members have enthusiastically stepped up to work on the show committee. Julie Larsen is willing to work on the boutique if she has a seasoned member to help her. This is a wonderful opportunity to get to know her better and to form a new bond. She would love to have a mentor. This is a major money maker for the show, so please tell her that you will be her co-chair.

Quilt Show Committee Announcements

We are happy to report that the committee volunteers are stepping up to fill in the positions, but we still need a few more positions filled. Everyone has busy lives but could realistically find a bit of time to take a leadership role in putting together another successful show.

Food is a wonderful enticement to get a group together. Judy will be hosting a kick-off gathering with a potluck supper in September for our first official show meeting. We welcome anyone who has not given the idea serious thought to join us for an evening of shared food and fellowship. Details will follow...volunteer to join us and learn more!

A meeting venue has been secured for the show committee. The location is safe, well lighted, and reasonably accessible for all.

Get excited for October 2019

Lighthouse Quilt Guild General Meeting Minutes

June 25th, 2018 at 7pm

President Pat Henningfeld called the meeting to order.

Announcements: Guests were welcomed.

Program: Through her presentation 'Captivating Color in our Quilts', Wendy Butler Berns showed us how using the color wheel to choose colors and hues can add visual interest to quilts. She had a variety of traditional and contemporary art quilts that demonstrated the concepts of complimentary, analogous, and triad colors.

Business:

- Ginger Wanserski announced July's meeting will be the annual picnic. Note that it starts at 6pm! In the upcoming newsletter Dianna Zimmerman will list, using the letter of your last name, who should bring what sort of food – main dish, desert, etc. Bring your donated items to sell to benefit the guild - there will be tables set out with price points of $1, $3, and $5, place your items where you think they should go, as well as an auction for higher priced items.
- Ginger also announced August's speaker is Mary Fons, presenting '30-something Quilter Tells All', along with a workshop 'Itsy Scrappy Spider' where room is still available. See Ginger to reserve your spot for the workshop and pay the fee.
- Judy Martin introduced the 2019 Quilt Show committee chairs. There are still some needs, please reach out to Judy or Sharon Matusevicius if you'd like to be involved.
- Pat Brown asked if the bylaw changes that were sent out during the past month could be approved. Regina Scott Brooks suggested that instead of saying that members who join after mid-year would pay $15, it should say they pay half the yearly fee so that in the future the amount doesn't have to be updated when membership fees change. Kirsten Weiss motioned this change be approved, Ginger Wanserski seconded the motion. The motion was brought to a vote and passed. After that update to the changes was approved, Regina Scott Brooks moved that all of the bylaw changes sent to membership during the last month, including the recent update to the membership fee after mid-year, be accepted. Barbara Vallone seconded the motion. The motion was brought to a vote and passed. All changes to the by-laws were approved.

Membership & door prizes: A variety of door prizes were awarded for those whose name was drawn.

Hospitality: The hospitality committee was introduced. Dianna Zimmerman noted to check the upcoming newsletter to find out what to bring for the July picnic. Reach out to her with any questions.

Other Announcements: Kitty Friend, who is working on the Quilt Show raffle quilt, is looking for volunteers to make blocks for the quilt. Contact her if you're interested in helping.

Show and Tell: A nice variety of quilts was shown.

Next Meetings: There is no Board meeting in July, the next Board meeting is August 6th, 7pm at Lutheran Church of the Resurrection. The next general Guild meeting is July 30th, 6pm at Lutheran Church of the Resurrection.

The meeting adjourned at 8:36pm.

Respectfully submitted
