Dear Parents,

Someone's Having A Birthday Party At

We want you and your child to have the best possible experience during your party at Ready Set Go. For insurance purposes, each child attending is required to have a release form filled out by their parents. If you do not fill out the release form your child cannot participate in the activities inside the gym. The release form is printed on the inside of this invitation when unfolded. Siblings may be listed on the same release form.

No one over the age of 17 (including parents) will be allowed on the equipment.

Thank you for your cooperation and have a great time at your party.
