February President's Message

Hope all you nobles had a nice family day weekend.

Looks like the snow will be not leaving us anytime soon. Like to thank all the nobles who attended the past presidents luncheon on Feb 1st for Grant. We had a enjoyable time and had a chance to meet the new potentate Illustrious Sir Rick Holberg and his lady Georgette, along with the Divan from Winnipeg.

It was also nice to see the past potentate Illustrious Sir Andrew Skene and his wife come up from Dryden for this event. We will all get a chance to see the potentate and divan again when they return to our city for the circus in May.

The Shriners hospital for children - Canada is planning on doing a fund raiser for the new Montreal Shriners hospital. They are planning on driving a vehicle from Atlantic Canada to the Pacific Ocean, to raise awareness about the Shrine Hospital, and are hoping to stop by in Thunder Bay in June. They would like us to put on an event in our city, to help them get the word out about the hospital and do some fund raising as well.

Hope to see you nobles out at the next regular meeting on the 25th.

Noble Joe Skehar
President of Lakehead Shrine Club
