Stewardship Reflection

"My God will supply whatever you need..." - PHILIPPIANS 4:19

God really does provide for those who are grateful and generous. This is very difficult for people that don't live a stewardship lifestyle to believe. People are skeptical and say it's just coincidence. If you are skeptical, try living a stewardship lifestyle for just one month – be generous with your gifts of time, talent and treasure and see how God provides for your needs.

• CONGRATULATIONS

We would like to congratulate Greg and Courtney Sequin who were married this weekend. May God bless them!

• CONDOLENCES

We extend our condolences to the family of Kenneth Hunter. We ask God to comfort and console them and to welcome Ken into everlasting life.

• LAY MINISTRY RECOMMISSIONING

The Cathedral of Mary of the Assumption will be the site of the commissioning and recommissioning of Lay Ministers who serve the parishes of our diocese. We are happy that Laura Sprywa of our parish will be one of the those recommissioned to serve for another three years.

• MASS OF REMEMBRANCE FOR THE UNBORN

Bishop Joseph Cistone will preside at mass on Thursday, October 19, 2017 at 7 p.m. at Assumption of the Lord Parish in Midland for parents and families who are grieving the loss of an unborn child – whether recent or many years ago. There will be a candle lighting during mass to honor all babies who died in their mother's womb.

• MISSION SUNDAY

We will have our annual opportunity to support the missions on Sunday, October 22 when we will take-up a collection for the support of our missionaries and their ministry.

• POST-ABORTIVE HEALING MINISTRY

The Diocese of Saginaw Respect Life Office offers Rachel's Vineyard weekend retreats for those who are struggling with spiritual and emotional pain after an abortion. The next retreat will be held in Saginaw on November 10-12, 2017. The retreat is confidential and an emotionally safe environment for those who attend. Call Lori Becker at 989-797-6652 or email lbecker@dioceseofsaginaw.org.

Blessings to all!

This missionary activity has been a hallmark of the church from the beginning and continues today. We are privileged to share in this work.

Seminar on Assisted Suicide—Center for Ministry Wednesday, October 25th from 9:30 a.m.-2:30 p.m. Cost is $20 per person (includes lunch). This seminar will address the moral and ethical aspects of assisted suicide and the ongoing campaign to legalize doctor-prescribed suicide in states throughout our nation. This threat to human dignity is fueled by the fear many people have about the dying process, pain and suffering, and the worry of being abandoned or becoming a burden on others. As people of faith, we believe that our society should embrace what St. John Paul II called "the way of love and true mercy" a readiness to surround patients with love, support, and companionship, providing the assistance needed to ease their physical, emotional, and spiritual suffering. For more information, please contact Terri Grierson at 989-797-6650 or tgrierson@dioceseofsaginaw.org.

Saturday, November 4th, will be a special day for welcoming new and returning members. Light refreshments will accompany a little social time before the singing begins. So, don't be shy, come, join us! We make beautiful music! Please let Pam Bour-scheidt know if you plan to attend. Email: pamb123@charter.net. Phone: 989.832.8215.

The Sunday Gospel in Everyday English

Jesus responded by telling still more stories. "God's kingdom," he said, "is like a king who threw a wedding banquet for his son. He sent out servants to call in all the invited guests. And they wouldn't come!

"He sent out another round of servants, instructing them to tell the guests, 'Look, everything is on the table, the prime rib is ready for carving. Come to the feast!'

"They only shrugged their shoulders and went off, one to weed his garden, another to work in his shop. The rest, with nothing better to do, beat up on the messengers and then killed them. The king was outraged and sent his soldiers to destroy those thugs and level their city.

"Then he told his servants, 'We have a wedding banquet all prepared but no guests. The ones I invited weren't up to it. Go out into the busiest intersections in town and invite anyone you find to the banquet.' The servants went out on the streets and rounded up everyone they laid eyes on, good and bad, regardless. And so the banquet was on—every place filled.

"When the king entered and looked over the scene, he spotted a man who wasn't properly dressed. He said to him, 'Friend, how dare you come in here looking like that!' The man was speechless. Then the king told his servants, 'Get him out of here—fast. Tie him up and ship him to hell. And make sure he doesn't get back in.'

"That's what I mean when I say, 'Many get invited; only a few make it' "
(from Matthew 22).
