

Philippine Consulate General in Vancouver Hosts Roundtable with PCTC and Filipino-Canadian Entrepreneurs

30 November 2018 – (Top photo) The Philippine Consulate General in Vancouver hosted a roundtable with the Filipino-Canadian business community in Greater Vancouver to take advantage of the presence in Vancouver of Senior Trade Commissioner Maria Roseni M. Alvero. At the forum, STC Alvero presented the thrusts of the Philippines' Department of Trade and Industry, including priority areas for engagement with Canada. In attendance were successful entrepreneurs in the food business, real estate, IT and service industry.

STC Alvero, who is based in Toronto, was in Vancouver for the 2018 Annual Consular Consultations and Economic Diplomacy Workshop.
