

We Are All Kentucky

Kelly Knoop

My name is Kelly Knoop. I am a Self-Advocate and I am an Assistive Technology Expert. I use assistive technology in my everyday life . I use a Dynavox communication device, a motorized chair, and I have a van specialized to help me travel.

I am the current president of the Metro Louisville Self Advocates. I am on the PADD Board for Kentucky Protection and Advocacy and very anxious to be a part of creating Project Safe. I played a key role in the statewide project for Voter Accessibility. I am a strong advocate for everyone.

“I believe we all have the right to choose for ourselves and should have equal respect and access in our communities.”
