

Martyrdom of the Apostles

1. Peter – Hung upside down by Nero 68 ad?
 2. Andrew – Crucified in Greece (X shaped cross)
 3. Bartholomew – Flayed by a whip in Armenia
 4. James – Beheaded by Herod
 5. John – A natural death in Ephesus – however, was burned in boiling oil by Emperor Domitian and sentenced to Patmos where it is believed he wrote Revelations before his release and settling in Ephesus with Jesus’ mother.
 6. James the Less – Thrown from the pinnacle of the temple (100 feet) and beaten to death – similar to James the brother of Jesus
 7. Jude – Crucified in Persia
 8. Judas the Betrayer --- Took his own life, hanging
 9. Matthew – Impaled to the earth by spears & beheaded in Ethiopia
 10. Matthias – (replaced Judas) – Stoned & beheaded late in 1st century
 11. Philip – Impaled by iron hooks in his ankles and hung upside down
 12. Simon -- Crucified
 13. Thomas – Stabbed with a spear & died in India
-
- Paul – Executed in Rome – Last letter written was Timothy

Ten Reasons to Believe Jesus’ Resurrection

1. Jesus’ resurrection fulfilled prophecies from the following passages in the Old Testament—Psalm 16:9-11; Psalm 49:15; Psalm 86:13; Isaiah 25:8; Isaiah 53:9
2. Jesus’ resurrection is reported in a creed that most historians date 8 to 20 years following his crucifixion.
3. (1 Corinthians 15:3-8) These sources were so early; they could not have been corrupted by mythological development.
4. Archaeological discoveries have shown that Luke, the author of the Gospel of Luke and the book of Acts, was a very accurate historian. His references to 32 countries, 54 cities, and 9 islands contained no mistakes. Luke would not likely sacrifice his attention to detail in reporting the most important part of the story, which is the resurrection of Jesus.
5. The eyewitnesses to the resurrection were women. In the first century, women were not considered reliable witnesses. If the followers of Jesus were fabricating a myth, they would have used men as witnesses rather than women.
6. The stone sealing the tomb probably weighed over 2000 pounds and could only be moved from outside. If the soldiers were asleep when the body disappeared, how could they know the disciples stole the body?
7. The disciples were cowards who had abandoned Jesus during his greatest need. They did not have the courage to pass by the guard at the tomb, silently move the extremely large stone, robe the grave, and leave undetected.
8. If Jesus didn’t die, he would have had to roll the stone away (which normally would take several men to accomplish) and sneak past four or more guards as he continued to endure the suffering from the wounds in his back, the wound in his side, and the wounds in his feet and hands.
9. If everyone went to the wrong tomb, Joseph of Arimathea, the owner of the tomb, as well as the Jewish authorities would have corrected them.
10. Jesus’ enemies would have produced his body for evidence. There was no report of Jesus dying at a later time.
11. More than 500 people saw Jesus after he rose from the dead. These people ate with him and spoke with him.