

Journey Able to Fulfill an Army Veteran's Final Dream to Take One Last Flight

On Saturday August 2, 2014, Kenneth Brown had the opportunity to have his dream fulfilled as he and his family took a flight in a corporate jet. With a prognosis of six months due to lung cancer, Mr. Brown a Greene County resident at the age of 76 spent the morning flying over the area he grew up in and has always loved. He had the opportunity to do this with both of his daughters Rhonda Wyatt and Carla Brown as well as his great-grandson Justin Smith. When our staff met with Mr. Brown to discuss his dream, he simply stated he wanted nothing more and nothing less than to fly one last time. It was our honor and privilege to be able to offer Mr. Brown and his family this opportunity.

"That was absolutely wonderful" - Kenneth Brown

"You are wonderful, caring people. Thank You" – Carla Brown

"We had such a wonderful time! My Dad really had a ball. I can never put into words what this meant to him. Thank you so very much!" – Rhonda Wyatt
