Prayers of the Faithful

For the Church, our Pope, bishops, and all church leaders to continually seek God's wisdom and guidance.

We pray:

For wisdom and integrity for leaders of all nations striving for peace and justice in our world.

We pray:

For nations affected by poverty, civil unrest and the rapid spread of covid-19; for perseverance and trust in God's power in the face of persecution and injustice.

We pray:

For our youth: for protection from harmful influences or doubt, and to always know of God's steadfast love for them.

We pray:

For those who have lost their job and benefits and are seeking employment; and for the isolated, sick and home-bound.

We pray:

For all who are sick, for those who have died and for families who are unable to have a funeral for their loved ones at this time. We pray.

Happy 50th Wedding Anniversary

BLESSINGS
on the Anniversary
of your Ordination

Fr. Laurence Quin-Morris recently celebrated the 44th Anniversary of his Ordination to the priesthood. Many things have changed in our church since he took his vows, but one thing that has not changed has been his commitment to serving God and God's people. We extend heartfelt congratulations to Fr. Laurence and we pray that God will bless him with happiness and good health that he may continue doing what he loves.

Exploring our Faith

To Be Understood, as to Understand

In the mid 1990's, singer Joan Osborne sang What If God Was One of Us which asked the question: "If you were faced with Him in all His glory, What would you ask if you had just one question?" Then, and now, I am with Solomon - understanding and wisdom.

When charged by God with "Ask what I should give you," Solomon responds "an understanding mind to govern your people able to discern between good and evil." You have before you a woman who has a secret fear of ever being called for jury duty. The huge responsibility that rests on the shoulders of those who serve us in that capacity, to determine what the future will look like for one who stands accused of a crime, is one I hope never to face. I have struggled to even determine who is telling the truth when my children, as youngsters, would come before me with "he said ... she did ..." expecting me to know what actually happened and dole out the appropriate punishment for the misdeed, the hurt inflicted, the pain caused. Facts, I have learned, may well be facts, but they are not necessarily truth.

Wisdom and understanding, in my experience, is not something that there is an abundance of. The psalmist assures us that "the unfolding of [the Lord's] words gives light; it imparts understanding to the simple." I must be brilliant, because that understanding quite often eludes me. Understanding may help to reach truth - the third piece of every story, as in my version, your version and THE truth. Understanding of why people make seemingly irrational decisions. Understanding of why I was privileged to be born in this country, into my birth family, find the life partner I found, am surrounded by the loving support of family and friends, as others, equally deserving of all the blessings I receive, struggle daily to simply feed, clothe and shelter themselves and their loved ones. Understanding of why we can't seem to see those different in their beliefs, culture, background, education as beloved children of God just as we are. Understanding of why some live to celebrate their 100th birthday, and others die as infants.

At the conclusion of this Sunday's Gospel reading, a continuation of Matthew's Chapter 13 we have heard for the past two weeks, Jesus asks his disciples, "Have you understood all this?" They respond yes. But we, with the benefit of knowing the outcome of the story, know they are a long way from complete understanding. Just as we, who so often respond in the affirmative to the same question, are living the same reality.

I have a dear friend with a rich prayer life. This prayer life has helped them to re-evaluate a reactionary response out of anger or hurt to a given situation with a more thoughtful, life giving, and appropriate response. Prayer has provided opportunity for deeper reflection on why they responded as they did, and courage to change that response. However, even then, complete understanding eludes them because we are unable to see the soul of another and know fully the why of how they behave.

My request for understanding and wisdom doesn't come from the need or desire to govern well, as Solomon's did. My request comes so that I can live in the peace and hope that God wants for us. It comes from the longing for the kingdom of heaven which Matthew has spoken of for the last three Sunday's - that same kingdom we pray will come each time we pray The Lord's Prayer. I used to think that it was something we were rewarded with upon death. Maybe there are many who also had, still have, that understanding. What Jesus came to share with us through his Good News, is that the kingdom of heaven is available to us now - it is an eternal life with God upon death, and it exists today, right now, when the compassion, forgiveness, mercy of which Jesus speaks is lived in our daily lives. This isn't easy. It involves understanding, wisdom, patience, love.

I have lots of questions for God when I am face-to-face with him; but understanding, for me, is probably the most important.

Attending Mass
Please arrive 15 to 30 minutes prior to Mass to allow for check in and seating

Some restrictions have been eased as to numbers allowed to gather with continued awareness of social distancing. You must call the parish office at 857-4223 Monday to Friday to reserve your place at Mass. (Deadline to reserve for weekend Mass is Friday at 12:00noon). Please note: you must register for weekday Mass also.

To register for Mass at Our Lady of Mercy please call Odette at 531-0252 or Mike at 351-4263. We will continue the original weekday Mass schedule.

Please follow these guidelines:

In the parking lot, stay safely 6 feet apart.

At the church entrance, stop and allow the volunteer to check you in.

Inside the door, stop and you will be given hand-sanitizer (your hands will be 'squirted')

Inside the church, follow the volunteer to your assigned seat

During Mass, follow all arrows and markings on the floor, so we all stay safely 6 feet apart

During Mass, enjoy the Music Ministry, Hum along, but for now, no singing.

After Mass, respect the safety of keeping the 6 feet between you and your fellow parishioners while leaving the building and when out in the parking lot.

Dispensation from Mass

During this pandemic, the dispensation of Sunday Mass is given to those who can not go, those fearful to go, and those advised not to go, to church. Rather, these faithful are invited to read the Word of God and to pray in their homes and to participate in the celebrations of the Mass via TV, radio and/or the Internet.

Those who are sick (fever, cough, etc), those over the age of 70 and those with medical or at-risk conditions are asked to assess their own risk and ultimately, to make their own decision.

Masks are not mandatory, but we encourage everyone to wear his or her own mask. When you are sitting in your pew, safely 6 feet away from others, you can certainly remove your mask, for your comfort.

Heartfelt
THANKS TO OUR VOLUNTEERS!

Thank you to all our volunteers!! Our church must be disinfected following every liturgy; there must be a person checking people in and having them answer the Covid-19 questions; there also needs to be someone just inside the door supplying all in attendance with hand sanitizer; and finally, there must be volunteers inside the church escorting people to their seats in a manner that respects social distancing. If you would like to help with any of these new ministries, please contact the parish office at 857-4223. Thank you.
