Vol. 7 No. 2 ~ Summer 2022

A Word to the Fore: Step by Step...!

Good eevening from the Model Animal Hobby History Archive room of the 1920-built abode we call Man o' War Manor, beside the historic Iron Horse Trail in Hurley, Wis. Someday--and getting closer, day by day!--this will house the Vintage Custom Model Equine Center and Museum.

Renovations are moving along a project at a time as we get the funds together. Next up is redoing the upstairs floors. Yesterday was a long one as we hauled a whole lotta new vinyl planking here. Once that's done, we can move goodies out of storage here, to free up that drain on the finances, and then go get the rest of the horses out of storage in Battle Creek, and then concentrate on Man o' War Manor's first floor, where the bulk of the Museum will be. Step by step!

A week ago, in celebration of the 100th anniversary of the first appearance of Barney Google's horse Spark Plug, we held an all-halter live show called the Spark Plug Cup at Hurley's beautiful Iron County Memorial Building. All went great, and we're looking forward all the more now to holding Vintage Custom Model Equine Congress Live III there on Oct. 1! The show packet will be available starting Aug. 1 on our website, <http://www.vcmec.org>, and on our Facebook page, <https://www.facebook.com/groups/vcmec/>, so be sure to grab yours. Hope to see you there!

In the meantime, check out this issue's cavalcade of newly crowned VCMEC Online World Champions!

Competing against other vintage customs from around the world (Australia, Canada, Germany, Sweden, the United Kingdom, and the USA), they've earned these honors through a year and a half of competition under seven different judges in the VCMEC 2020-21 Online World Championships show series. It's an event so epic, we had to split this issue into two halves to be able to upload all the results!

We'll be ordering its beautiful trophies and rosettes from Hodges Badge Company next month at the same time we order the awards for VCMEC Live III. If you have a 2020-21 World Champion or Reserve World Champion, first of all, mondo congrats! And second of all, be thinking about if you'd like to order a commemorative ribbon for that horse. We'll be contacting entrants around the first week of August to find out.

The first three editions of this epic series have been so much fun, we're happy to announce that the VCMEC 2022-23 Online World Championships are a go! The gates will open Aug. 1, with the first show in the six-leg series to start Sept. 1 (deadline is Aug. 30). Get your show information packet PDF on our website or on the Vintage Custom Model Equine Center's Facebook page starting Aug. 1!

Next issue we'll feature the results of VCMEC Live III, so watch for that in late October. (Better yet, experience the show in person first!)

Now, here come the world's greatest vintage customs and their hard-earned VCMEC titles for 2020-21. Congratulations to all and their creators, owners, and photographers!

Til next, please be safe!

-Sparky C.

Get Ready for "The Show That Time Forgot": Vintage Custom Model Equine Congress Live III is October 1!

Take a trip back through time to a model horse show the way they used to be! Amid the brilliant fall foliage in Hurley, Wis. (famed as "where 51 ends and the fun begins!"), Vintage Custom Model Equine Congress Live III will be held Oct. 1 at the historic Iron County Memorial Building.

This all-halter extravaganza has divisions for model horses customized in the 1960s/'70s, 1980s, and 1990s. There's lots of great loot for the winning, remakes from yesteryear in the showring spotlight, the chance to hang out and reminisce with friends old and new...it's the experience that is Vintage Custom Model Equine Congress Live! C'mon and enjoy it with us!

The show packet will be available starting Aug. 1 at
