A Note from Rick: Markets were steady at TLA this week. There wasn't anything in particular that stood out as a highlight on Tuesday. Dairy cattle and baby calves were both a little stronger. Slaughter cattle and slaughter cows were slightly lower than a week ago. Keep in mind that the cow market has been very strong, especially last week. The feeder sale was very light with prices being steady. We had our June Driving horse sale on Saturday and the market was strong. We had just over 150 head of horses and a good crowd. I think just about all of us have received some much needed rain over the last week or so. It should be safe to say that, as a whole, we've got a good crop on the way at this point. I hope everyone gets a chance to celebrate Independence Day this week end. The weather forecast looks like we're going to have a typical Fourth of July. Have a great week and hope to see you at TLA!
