

Ottawa's Ball Carriers---

These eight backs, four of them from Greater Kansas City, carry the mail for Ottawa university's football eleven. Top row, left to right, are Jack Ramsey, Kanasas City, Kas.; Lyle Swetman, Kansas City; Ray Fitzgerald, Waverly, Kas.; Don Meek, Fort Scott. Back row—Oliver Smith, Leavenworth; Lyman Morgan, Leavenworth; Lester Taylor, Kansas City, Kas., and Norman Gerhold, Richmond, Kas.

Hanauer May Be Out

League Standings

	W.	L.	T.	Pct.	Pts.	Op.
Wyandotte	3	0	0	1.000	80	6
Argentine	2	0	0	1.000	20	0
Leavenworth	1	1	0	.500	7	12
Atchison	1	2	1	.375	53	66
Rosedale	1	2	0	.333	14	47
Olathe	0	1	2	.333	25	26
Shawnee	0	2	1	.167	12	54

Eddie Hanauer, husky fullback who was Rosedale's outstanding gridster in the game with Wyandotte last week, may miss the game with Shawnee-Mission Friday night because of an injured side.

Hanauer turned up with a sore side in last night's drill and he will be examined today to determine the extent of the injury. Wilbur Fry, another regular, lost two front teeth in the Wyandotte contest but will see action Friday.

The Shawnee-Mission Indians, with only minor bruises to handicap them, displayed a new spirit in snapping through a light scrim-

Ottawa Bids for Title in Kansas Conference

By Parke Carroll

Another interesting chapter on college football in Kansas will be tucked away in one of history's numerous pigeonholes this week and it may reveal some surprising things.

Two games are scheduled in the Central and two in the Kansas conference, with an element of doubt attached to each one. From a distance the surest thing seems to be Pittsburgh over Southwestern in the C. I. C. Saturday in Winfield. Coach Charles Morgan of Pittsburg wishes he could be half as certain as neutral "experts" seem to be.

The other C. I. C. game that date is the feature between Emporia and Fort Hays in Hays.

Wesleyan Plays Ottawa

Headline news of the Kansas conference develops Friday night in Ottawa where the Braves play Kansas Wesleyan and Saturday in Emporia when Baker resumes defense of the title against C. of E.

Bethany is out in front in the race for the championship with victories over Baker and Wesleyan, but Ottawa is not far behind. The

Hockey Clubs to Make Early Start

New York—(UP)—The National hockey league will make its earliest start in history this year when Boston clashes with the Maple Leafs at Toronto and the New York Americans tackle the Blackhawks at Chicago on November 3.

K-State Invades Big 10 Again

Manhattan, Kas. — The Kansas State Wildcats will make their second invasion of the Big Ten conference Saturday when they travel to Bloomington, Ind., to take on Coach "Bo" McMillin's Indiana university team. Approximately 35,000 persons are expected to see the big homecoming attraction which is the first of two home games for the Hoosiers.

There's more than the ordinary rivalry between the two schools and Coach Wesley L. Fry and his

If
AC