Recommend By-Law Section Changes: To reduce the International Officers line to International Commander and five (5) Lieutenant Commanders.

ARTICLE IV Section 1. OFFICERS Reads:

Section 1. OFFICERS: The Elective Officers of the International Association Legions of Honor will be an International Commander and eight (8) International Lieutenant Commanders, to be designated and ranked as 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th International Lieutenant Commander for a one (1) year term and an International Adjutant for a three (3) year term and an International Finance Officer for a three (3) year term which will commence one (1) year after the election of the International Adjutant.

Change to Read:

Section 1. OFFICERS: The Elective Officers of the International Association Legions of Honor will be an International Commander and five (5) International Lieutenant Commanders, to be designated and ranked as 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, and 5th International Lieutenant Commander for a one (1) year term and an International Adjutant for a three (3) year term and an International Finance Officer for a three (3) year term which will commence one (1) year after the election of the International Adjutant.

Foot Note: The Lieutenant Commander line will be reduced by one slot per year if the line has all eight Lt. Commanders or by one slot per year plus the number of vacant slots until the 5th Lt. Commander is reached. This reduction statement will be removed from the by-laws once the transition process is complete without any further approval.
