

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated®

XI EPSILON OMEGA

February 3, 2018

Dear Friends and Supporters:

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated, Xi Epsilon Omega Chapter is pleased to announce that Dr. Hazel N. Dukes, President of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) New York State Conference will be guest speaker at the annual Founders' Day Celebration. The event is being held on Sunday February 25, 2018 at 2:00PM at the Millennium Hotel, 2040 Walden Ave., Cheektowaga, New York. Tickets are $50 per person.

We are honored to have Dr. Dukes with us for the occasion of the 110th anniversary of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated. Founded in 1908, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated is the first Negro Greek-letter sorority. From the core group of nine at Howard University, the sorority has grown into a force of more than 290,000 collegiate members and alumnae, constituting 1,007 chapters in 42 states, the District of Columbia, the US Virgin Islands, the Bahamas, Germany, Liberia, South Korea, Japan, Canada, South Africa and the Middle East.

Dr. Dukes' voice resonates on issues that are near and dear to our hearts. She is an influential and forceful voice for justice and civil rights; an active and dynamic leader who is known for her unselfish and devoted track record of improving the quality of life for New York State. She has been awarded several Honorary Doctorate Degrees and has many organizational affiliations including The Links, Inc.; National Council of Negro Women, Inc.; Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.; and the National Black Leadership Commission on Aids, Inc. She is a former trustee of the State University of New York and Stillman College, Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

Meritorious awards will be presented to Mayor Byron W. Brown, The African American Cultural Center, and Muhammad School of Music. We hope you will join us for this festive celebration. For tickets, please email the enclosed reservation form to Mrs. Roshelle Lewis, roshelle216@aol.com or call (716) 208-7133. Your RSVP is requested by February 19, 2018. Mrs. Cecelia B. Henderson is the Chairman for this event.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Mary Ruth Kapsiak, President
