AMANA NEWS AND NOTES

Double Wide Texas Mega Sized Fun

Here's the deal. Big Ethel Satterwhite has been fired from her job teaching good nutrition to parolees; Georgia Dean Rudd has lost her man and her best waitress at her diner; Larken Barken shows up on Georgia's doorstep "with child;" and Caprice Crumpler believes she has been discovered as the next Marilyn Monroe in her favorite honky tonk; while her full grown daughter, Joveeta, told her boss to jump off a cliff and as her boss is the Mayor of Tugaloo, Texas you know there's gonna be big trouble.

Meanwhile Joveeta's older brother Baby is practicing to appear in the "womanless beauty contest," And their scheming neighbor Haywood Sloggett is fed up with what he calls the "trailer trash" next door.

So begins this rollicking, 21st century western about a group of spunky nonconformists whose community on wheels is being threatened by the powers that be in the form of the Tugaloo, Texas City Council, so they band together and come up with a bodacious scheme to keep their land and their community in tact. Where it goes from there we won't divulge but this show is sillier than a Texas two step on a sheet of ice.

The Old Creamery kick-starts the second half of their 2019 season with this very funny comedy featuring Marquette Senters, Carrie SaLoutos, Katie Colleta, Dion Stover, Jackie McCall and yes, Tom Schwans along with OCTC newcomer Donna Schulte who rocks the house as Caprice Crumpler and Anne Ohrt as the scheming Mayor's wife, Starla Pudney, who throws more than one monkey wrench into the mix. They are under the direction of Sean McCall. Yes, this cast and this director know their way around a comedy so be prepared to be well entertained.

Marquette Senters and Donna Schulte earn the biggest laughs with the audience in stitches over their crazy costume changes and fast paced comebacks. We won't give up a thing but gosh the audience was howling with laughter half way through the first few minutes of the first act.

This mega-sized Texas comedy was written by Jessie Jones, Nicholas Hope and Jamie Wooten, the same folks who that very popular OCTC hit, "The Dixie Swim Club." So come on down to Double Wide Texas, grab a lawn chair and plan to smile!

At the Old Creamery Theatre through August 25. Call for tickets right now 319-622-6262 or go on line for tickets oldcreamery.com.

Sign Up Today To Paint or Participate in Fresh Paint Join Them for the Golden Brush Awards Dinner

For the past 12 years, Jenise and Ithiel Catiri, owners of Catiri's Art Oasis Gallery, have hosted the Fresh Paint Plein Air competition, now the longest tenured plein air (open air) event in Iowa. This year it's Aug. 30 - Sept. 1.

Work created out of doors during this competition in the Amana Colonies is judged and cash prizes awarded. A post competition exhibition is featured at Catiri's through September. Though the level of competition has increased with its growing prestige, the competition welcome artists of all skill levels and its encouraging atmosphere makes for a positive experience for every artist, a point the Catiris insist upon. Check their website at freshpaintiowa.com for details and the registration form. Yes, if you love to paint you will love participating in or coming to see this event.

On Saturday, Aug. 31 from 11 a.m. - 2 p.m. on Catiri's front lawn it's Kids Fresh Paint with the Amana Arts Guild providing paints and easels so that any youngster may paint.

Then Sunday night there's the much anticipated "Golden Brush" awards ceremony and supper with jazz performing artist Catfish Keith, entertaining.

Tickets are available and everyone is invited and the evening includes a preview showing of works created. Again check with Catiri's Art Oasis or the freshpaintiowa.com website for dinner tickets.

BAKED GOODS NEEDED FOR THE FESTIVAL OF THE ARTS

On Saturday, August 10th, the Amana Arts Guild will sponsor our annual Festival of the Arts. Please note: WE HAVE MOVED, the venue for the Festival is the Market Barn in Amana, 707--46th Ave. As always any pies, cakes, cookies, pastries and traditional desserts you can make for the food booth will be appreciated! Please bring your favorites to the Market Barn any time after 8:00 AM on August 10th. Thank you in advance for your donation! The Festival of the Arts is a major fund raiser for the Guild and all donations are greatly appreciated!

EXPERIENCE A KITCHEN GIRLS BIRTHDAY DURING THE COMMUNAL ERA OF AMANA

What was it like working in one of the 50 communal kitchens during Amana's communal era? As one of its series of communal dinners, the Amana Heritage Society will be featuring a kitchen girls birthday during the pre-1932 communal era on August 17th at 5:15pm in Middle Amana.

This themed event provides you with a glimpse into how communal Amana celebrated the birthday of a young lady who worked in the Ruedy Communal Kitchen. Learn about her life and how young ladies contributed to village life. A short village tour will follow the authentic communal era meal.

The menu includes traditional Colony foods with the entrée of Carbonade (Breaded Pork Loin, creamed potatoes along with Cream Puffs for dessert.

This special evening takes place at the Communal Kitchen Museum, 1003 26th Ave, Middle Amana, IA. Advance tickets are required and can be purchased at www.amanaheritage.org. the price is only $25/person.

For more information on this or other communal dinners please call 319-622-3567

WHIRLPOOL HABITAT EVENT
 Cedar Valley Habitat for Humanity (CVHFH), and Whirlpool Corporation have partnered on a "Panel Build" in Amana on Wednesday, August 7, 2019, in the parking lot of the Amana plant to construct the walls for the next Habitat home. Over 75 Whirlpool Corporation volunteers, split among three shifts between 8:30 a.m. and 3:00 p.m., were involved in helping provide a "hand-up" to an area family. After the completion of the volunteer day, the walls will be delivered to the new home's foundation in Fairfax where CVHFH is building four homes in 2019/20.

Not only does Whirlpool donate a refrigerator and range to every family that purchases a Habitat home, they have also donated over $220,000 and provided over 2600 hours of volunteer hours.

Whirlpool Corporation not only will help to build the walls, but they are sponsoring the panel build at $15,000. "Whirlpool has donated more than $107 million and over 197,300 ranges and refrigerators to new Habitat homes in the U.S. and Canada and we are blessed to work with them on a local basis," said Misti Huedepohl, communications manager at Whirlpool Corporation. "Whirlpool is committed to the mission of Habitat and making an impact to families locally and around the world."
