

The people were astonished at [Jesus'] teaching, for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes.

MARK 1:22

Teaching with Authority

Who teaches with authority? To whose voice should we listen? The first reading provides an answer. Moses had been appointed by God to be God's voice for the Israelites—for that is what a prophet is. Moses assures the people that God will raise up a leader like himself. They are to listen to that voice just as they listened to his voice. The Gospel presents Jesus as the fulfillment of that promise.

The issues of contemporary life are extraordinarily complex. Actually, when one is in the midst of living, it is always complex. It was complex at the time of Moses and at the time of Jesus as well. So, to whose voice should disciples listen? It is easy to answer: "The one with authority." But who has authority? Recognizing genuine authority is not as easy as it sounds. Moses' position of authority was eventually recognized, but that was not the case in the beginning. The expression, "Who died and left you boss?" comes right out of an earlier story of Moses (Exodus 2:14). As for Jesus, he never held a recognized position of authority in his society, and we know his authority seems eventually to have been rejected by most.

A sign of genuine authority is seen in the integrity of one's life. Moses led the people through the struggles of the wilderness. In this Gospel, Jesus confirms the message of his teaching with his works of healing. Who has authority? "By their fruits you will know them" (Matthew 7:16).

Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

FOR Reflection

- ★ As a disciple of Jesus, whose voice are you inclined to follow? Why?
- ★ What is your attitude toward official authority? Is this a good attitude to hold?

Dear Padre,

Recently my son made his first reconciliation and was told to say some prayers as his penance. Doesn't this make prayer seem like a punishment for being bad?

You raise a valid concern. In fact the latest rite of reconciliation suggests that, if at all possible, penance must right the wrong and be clear enough that the penitent knows he has fulfilled it. Penance should not just show God we're sorry; it should also put us on the path to a Christian life and correct the harm our sins caused.

For instance, if someone has stolen something and returning it would reveal his sin (this cannot be part of the penance), making a comparable donation might be a fitting penance. When someone confesses gossiping, I challenge him or her to tell someone else something good about the person who was gossiped about. In other words, instead of spreading pain, learn to spread joy. The penance for disobeying parents might be to do something nice for them or do chores without being asked. This type of penance is far more beneficial to the penitent and the community at large.

Using prayer as a penance can send the signal that we pray only when we've been bad or need something from God, like forgiveness. On the contrary, prayer should be constant. We should pray always and in all ways, if for no other reason than to give glory to God.

A WORD FROM Pope Francis

We must never forget that true power, at any level, is service, whose bright summit is upon the cross....Although man frequently equates authority with control, dominion, success, for God authority is always synonymous with service, humility, love. It means entering the logic of Jesus who kneels to wash the Apostles' feet.

From the Pastor

Thanks to everyone of the parish who have made my transition from Glasgow to Immaculate Conception and St. Patrick so effortless. You have truly made me feel at home and I deeply appreciate your patience as I get settled in.

It will soon be time for the Season of Lent and before that time of Penance and Self-Denial there will be a Lenten Schedule given to you for your use in planning to attend the Masses, Confessions, and Stations of the Cross that will be taking place throughout the Lenten Season. The Schedule will be available on the weekend before Ash Wednesday, which is February 17th this year.

The Blessing of Throats in honor of St. Blasé will be offered at the end of the Masses this weekend. Instead of an individual blessing, it will be offered from the altar as part of the Final Blessing of Mass for everyone.

Thank You!

Thank you to Mike & Molly Taylor and Jeff & Theresa Turner of Brandkamp Industries for providing the new cabinets in the rectory kitchen. Thanks also to Dennis & Jean Benney, Tom Benney, Pat Stumbaugh, and Dottie Brueggen for removing the old, damaged cabinets, moving appliances and installing new flooring. What a transformation!!! This project has been in the planning phase for many months and finally was completed. Thanks also to those who contributed to the Capital Improvement/Maintenance Fund (monthly green envelopes) which supplied the "seed money" for this project. A picture of the kitchen renovation is posted in the church vestibule for all to see!

ECLC Happenings

IC Scrip Program

Whenever you purchase a gift card from the IC School Scrip Program, the school receives a percentage of the purchase price. The percentage will vary from one company to another but there is no extra charge to you. A $25 card costs you $25. Why not let some of your money that you would spend anyway go to a good cause? There are a few ways to obtain the cards. You may purchase physical cards at the school or after Masses on the first full weekend of the month. You may also go online to www.ShopWithScrip.com to create an account to purchase e-cards, reload select cards, or place a large order for physical cards. If you have any questions, call Gina Smith, coordinator, 573-289-8635.

Parish Marriage Preparation Facilitators Needed

The Bishop has asked that each Parish have Marriage Preparation Facilitators who will collaborate with the parish's priest or deacon responsible for preparing engaged couples according to the diocesan policy on marriage preparation. "It is highly recommended that married couples, especially those married for at least five years, be invited to be Marriage Preparation Facilitators, since their personal experience in marriage will be helpful as they walk with engaged couples in their marriage preparation journey. However, some individuals may be good Marriage Preparation Facilitators due to their education, experience, and/or gifts in working with couples."

All potential Marriage Preparation Facilitators should exhibit the following characteristics:

- Active Catholics and faithful to Catholic doctrine.
- Have good communication skills with their spouse (if married) and be open to sharing their marital experiences.
- Have effective interpersonal and social skills. The relationship formed with the engaged couple is a key element of the impact and success of the marriage preparation process.
- Be able to inspire trust and maintain confidentiality.
- Have knowledge, experience and/or gifts that will empower, help, or inspire engaged couples. Be open to work with and collaborate with the priest(s) and/or deacon(s) of their parish.
- Open to time commitment necessary for training and working with couples. • Feel called to serve through this ministry.

If you would be interested in serving as a Marriage Preparation Facilitator, please let Fr. Hartley know.

Here is a reminder regarding our Community and External Operations Diocesan Policies:

***DSP 1105***

A cooperative approach where school administrator/principal, teachers and parents work in harmony to educate and develop the child in all areas in his/her life – spiritual, academic, human formation.

***DSP 1810***

Enrollment in a Catholic School is a privilege, not a right. Especially in the Catholic Schools, an expectation of a child's enrollment is the support and close cooperation of the parent(s) or guardian(s) with the school. By enrolling children in this private, Catholic School, parents are agreeing to this policy as well as all other policies and regulations of the school.

We have received 30 chromebooks to use in classrooms and for virtual learning. We are all very excited to finally have them so we can start learning with our new technology.

*A HUGE thank you to Don (Grandpa) Rieke, for taking down our old whiteboards. It was a big task!!! Our new interactive boards have been delivered and are waiting to be installed.
