PRIVACY

BBFF uses this website to let the public know what we are doing and give those who are interested a chance to contribute or become involved. Browsing our site will not require the disclosure of any personal data.

When registering for the Unplug fundraising event, some personal information will be held by BBFF for the sole purpose of enabling direct contact with participants regarding the event and to identify donations received for the event. BBFF does not share any collected information with any other donors, organisations or third parties.

BBFF accepts online donations as a means of fundraising for the work we do. When an online donation is made, donor information (name, address, donation amount, email address, phone number) is collected to allow us the process and record your donation. We use the services of Paypal and GiveNow to receive online donations, which ensures that we do not collect or have access to any credit card or banking details.

USE OF DONATIONS

All donations received by BBFF are used for the benefit of the children and communities being assisted and supported by BBFF.

In the event that:

- funds raised for a particular project or program exceed the amount required to meet the needs of that project or program, or
- there are changes in circumstances beyond BBFF's control which limit its ability to use all funds for the purpose for which they were raised,

BBFF will direct surplus funds to similar projects or programs it conducts in the future.

For general fundraising events, such as Unplug, BBFF confirms that all funds raised will be used to support BBFF's work in providing programs and projects to our communities. BBFF reserves the right to determine how best to use the funds raised and may, at its discretion, direct part or all to areas of priority or hold some to support future work.
