A 63-year-old Elkton man became Huron County's eighth traffic fatality so far this year when he died Wednesday at the Hills and Dales Hospital, Cass City, from injuries sustained in a February 7 traffic mishap.

Carl A. Leckenby was injured when the car he was driving collided with a pick-up truck on Elkton Road at the Huron Line Road intersection.

Leckenby's wife, Lucille, 60, a passenger in his auto, and Edward K. Mitchell, 30, Owendale, driver of the truck, were also hurt in the mishap.

Mr. Leckenby was born February 21, 1909 in Colfax Township.

He was in the Dairy business in the Elkton area.

Surviving are his widow; one daughter, Mrs. Phyllis Kreh, Owendale; one son, John Leckenby, Athens, Ga.; his mother, Mrs. Fayme Leckenby, Bad Axe; two sisters, Mrs. Beulah Parker and Mrs. Robert McArdle, both of Bad Axe; two brothers, Leland Leckenby, Berkley, and Donald Leckenby, Farmington; and four grandchildren.

Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Saturday in the Elkton United Methodist Church. Rev. O. William Cooper will officiate with burial in the Grandlawn Cemetery, Pigeon.

Remains are at the Huron Memorial Chapel, Elkton.
