Tender Hearts

“... because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before the Lord when you heard what I spoke against this place and against its inhabitants, that they would become a desolation and a curse, and you tore your clothes and wept before Me, I also have heard you,’ says the Lord” (2 Kings 22:19).

IT IS OUR CHOICES THAT DETERMINE OUR CHARACTER, AND ONE VERY CRITICAL CHOICE IS WHETHER TO HAVE A HEART THAT IS “TENDER” WITH RESPECT TO GOD. Although we have minds that are capable of knowing God, this knowledge is not automatic. We have to choose to be receptive and responsive. Evidently Josiah had made such a choice, and it is a wonderful thing that God said about him: “You humbled yourself . . . when you heard what I spoke.” On the other hand, no sadder thing can be said than the verdict pronounced by God upon certain ones in Isaiah’s day: “When I called, you did not answer; when I spoke, you did not hear” (Isaiah 65:12). To fail to respond to God is a serious failure. If we may use the word “impressionable” in a positive sense, that is what the tender heart is. Like clay that is soft enough to receive an impression, the tender heart is capable of being “impressed,” or influenced, by God. It feels and responds naturally. The tender heart can be touched. It is moved by the things it should be moved by. To have such a heart is to have chosen to be responsive to God and receptive to the words He has spoken. Some, however, have a heart that is “past feeling” (Ephesians 4:19). This sort of heart is without “natural affection” (Romans 1:31 KJV), and is not “easy to be entreated” (James 3:17 KJV). Having lost its sensitivity by repeated refusals to respond, the hard heart can no longer be touched or affected by stimuli that once would have moved it quite easily. It’s difficult to imagine a more serious problem than this condition of character (Romans 2:5). In God’s providence, each of us is confronted each day with facts that ought to move us. Whether we are willing to be moved is a question of character, and such questions of

character demand our most sober attention. The whole issue of spiritual growth hangs in the balance as we make the daily decisions that determine our responsiveness, the sensitivity of our hearts.

“What is this darkness? What is its name? Call it an aptitude for sensitivity. Call it a rich sensitivity which will make you whole. Call it your potential for vulnerability” (Meister Eckhart).

Today’s Bible Quiz Answer

a) not one of them

Ex 14:21-29

21 Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea into dry land, and the waters were divided. 22 So the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea on the dry ground, and the waters were a wall to them on their right hand and on their left. 23 And the Egyptians pursued and went after them into the midst of the sea, all Pharaoh’s horses, his chariots, and his horsemen.

24 Now it came to pass, in the morning watch, that the LORD looked down upon the army of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and cloud, and He troubled the army of the Egyptians. 25 And He took off their chariot wheels, so that they drove them with difficulty; and the Egyptians said, “Let us flee from the face of Israel, for the LORD fights for them against the Egyptians.”

26 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand over the sea, that the waters may come back upon the Egyptians, on their chariots, and on their horsemen.” 27 And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and when the morning appeared, the sea returned to its full depth, while the Egyptians were fleeing into it. So the LORD overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea. 28 Then the waters returned and covered the chariots, the horsemen, and all the army of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them. Not so much as one of them remained. NKJV
