MARCHING TO THE LORD'S TEMPO

March is turning out to be a month of marching ahead with the Lord. His joy, our strength. After a night of sweet and refreshing rain the sun rose, breaking through the morning clouds. The day the Lord created was calmly presented to The Ranch. O, how I love the mornings. Opening the blinds, my eyes beheld the early sunlight beaming up through the cumulus billows. I trotted outside, camera in hand for this shot. The flag rippled softly in the quietness of what seemed to be a sacred moment. Clouds were marching away and the day promised to be another gift of God's empowerment and grace over the Children's Ranch.

NAME THIS PHOTO – send it to me, and it will be posted in the April or May Tidbits.

This photo is especially precious because of the animal's and the infant's like appearance and size. They are dressed the same, in the same color, about the same height. The toddler's hood even has long ears on the top! Both get-ups are gray with, seemingly, a like texture!

The toddler at the Ranch is 15 months old already! What a joy he is. When awake, he is on his feet every second, investigating every thing with the wonder of a true adventurer. Here he is giggling as a friend's goat gives him a close up investigation ... and then ... what??? A kiss?

THE ANNUAL YARD SALE FUND RAISER was a huge success. The Benson Lions Club permitted us to use their parking lot, the ideal location and setting for the dozens upon dozens of shoppers who marched over. If you look carefully, you can see their logo on the side of the building. There was an air of festivity with the blue clouds and breezy day. Contributions are dropped off at the Ranch all year in anticipation of this well-known event. You name, we had it. The day prior to the sale was spent just loading the pick up trucks - five loads!! Plus our 11-passenger van was filled. Then at 6:00 a.m. we headed to the Lions Club and began unloading. All left overs were picked up by the DAV (Disabled American Vets) to bless their work. By 4:00 p.m. the volunteers were ready to drop!! Too tired to cook, but being ready to eat, we ended the event by marching down to the 86 Café for some authentic mexican food. The next day, Patsy (our beloved bookkeeper) confirmed the total of funds raised. $2004.00!! (Thank You, Lord Jesus!) Next month I will tell what those dollars will be doing. Here's a hint:

Our busy boy is volunteering to do some of the needed earthwork in preparation for those raised designated dollars.

PSALM 68:7
Thank you, Lord, that you go before us, you march with us through the wilderness of this world. Ps 68:7
