Come join us for an informative evening with the director David Stuart and a tour of the museum. He will lead a tour of the newest exhibits in the Erickson Building. Some of the exhibits include Native Peoples exhibition, trappers/French Camp exhibit, the gold rush exhibits, the exhibits on Charles Weber and the founding of Stockton and San Joaquin County, the furnished rooms of the 1892 Julia Weber house, etc. Our very popular short-term exhibition will also be up (until May 28): “Washington Street: The Heart and Soul of Stockton Chinatown”

Please try to be there before 7 PM. You may have to pay a $5 auto gate fee. After entering Mickey Grove Park, you will enter a traffic circle and go left, then at the stop sign turn left again and you should see the museum sign and parking lot. Please park in the museum parking lot and enter through the red “carriage house” Museum entrance building. The meeting will be in the first building on the right as you enter the museum, the Erickson Building. It’s just past the dredge bucket and the county map exhibit panel. Refreshments will be available. This program is free to all.
