Tournament News

Our next tournament will be a little bit early in the month and held on August 8th due to a schedule change. It is the ever popular 2 Man 4 Club Red Tees Better Ball Tournament. We usually get a large field for this event so make sure you get your entry and requests in early. Entries are due by August 1st.

Please sign up early through e-mail to dcox181@hotmail.com or by filling out a Sign-Up form located in the golf shop. As always you can also sign up on the EPMC web site.

For the July Invitational we had a total of 54 players tee it up in two man teams. I saw a two new faces and an ex EPMC member who made the trek to join us again. Sam Bruinsma joined us again this year coming in all the way from Iowa.

Congratulations to all the winners in the 2 man Invitational. Winners were Louis Washington and Danny Day posting a score of 122 to take the top spot on A side. Larry LaBonte and John Agan won first on the B side with 118.5. We ended up paying down to 5 places so if you didn't see your name on the scoreboard, please check the results in the newsletter. Please check your script balances in the golf shop.

Thanks to Kevin and Mark for their support on the scoreboard and help with the results. When you see them please let them know how much we appreciate the help and support they give to the club.

What's Your Complaint?

Who is not tired of hearing golfers complain? The irony is, it is golfers who do the complaining and golfers who are tired of hearing it.

The worst is, the complaining is always about all the wrong things. It's about bumpy greens or bare spots in the fairway. I'm a complainer. But I never complain about the course. I always consider how the game started in the most rugged of conditions. There were no nicely mown fairways or manicured greens. No sir, the pioneers of our game maneuvered their ball through fierce winds and pouring rain. The fairways were the wild grasses of the links lands and they were mowed where the sheep so decided. Rabbit pellets and sheep turds were common obstacles. Sam Snead commented after winning the 1946 Open, "It looks like there used to be a golf course here."

I know what to expect when I come to the golf course. The convenient drive, the modest price and just an inkling of knowledge of the history of the game leave no room for complaint.

Here are my complaints and they should be yours too. In many cases the perpetrators are the fellows in your foursome and no one says anything.

5. Since when is it no longer appropriate to repair a divot? I don't see anyone doing it anymore unless I'm watching TV. Pick up that fuzzy little dirt clod and put it back in the hole you created from that crappy shot. Why should the grass suffer just because you stink at golf?
4. You can't repair a ball mark by pounding on it with your putter. If you can't bend over to repair a ball mark, you shouldn't be playing the game. Do it right and maybe the greens will be just a little less bumpy.
3. Nothing is more disgusting than having to sweep a sunflower seed out of your putting line. Finding them on the tee box is equally undesirable. Why not spit them into your hand and put them in your pocket? Doesn't sound too appealing, then carry a cup. And while I'm at it, the parking lot is not your personal toilet. If I am right about this then why am I seeing q-tips and floss picks tossed on the asphalt?
2. Keep the damn cart on the cart path when you get to the green. I see guys take the cart three feet off the path and park it on the grass. That's five extra steps and in the mean time you are creating a bad lie by compressing the ground or killing the grass.
1. Every time they give Ryan Getzlaf a close-up, he does it. I saw Hope Solo do it in the final. The Japanese supposedly have a saying: "why put it in your pocket?" I am talking about the flying goober, the snorted snotball. No thanks, please don't share your expelled honker for me to step on. You are closer to Solo than Getzlaf but you are neither. Take a napkin from the snack bar and show the Japanese they are wrong. I'll throw away my shoes if I step in it!
