McCARTHY BECOMES TOUR'S NEWEST CHAMPION

COLLINS WINS 2nd CONSECUTIVE TITLE

Josh Collins, originally from Fortson, Georgia, rolled into the GISBT Winner's Circle for the 2nd straight month. Just 2 weeks ago, the 2-handed lefty steamrolled the field to capture his first tour win, but this month's championship march came in a much different manner, as he was challenged by a trio of tour players.

Collins qualified on top, and was in the lead most of the way, but was ultimately caught with just 2 matches remaining. A 236 in game #15 enabled him to open a 91-pin lead heading into the position round, and despite his final game 222-217 loss to tournament runner-up Jacob Bianchi, he held on for a 55-pin margin of victory.

The talented lefty has stamped his arrival as a force to be reckoned with this season, signaling his immediate arrival with a runner-up finish at the August season opener in Davenport. Last month, he was the only left-hander to qualify for the finals, while this month, he was 1 of 4 port-siders to advance to match play.

NEARLY 2½ SEASONS SINCE LAST BOY'S BACK-TO-BACK CHAMPION

Collins became the first boy's back-to-back champion since Seth Sikkema captured 2 straight back at the September and October 2019 tour stops. For his 16 games, the champion averaged 216.75, and for the 2nd straight month he secured a $450 scholarship. The back-to-back wins have enabled Collins to surge into the Bowler of the Year race; he leads by 46 points with just 1 regular season event remaining. Congratulations, Josh!

BIANCHI EARNS RUNNER-UP, BEST SHOWING OF TOUR CAREER

Jacob Bianchi was in the finest form of his career at this month's tour stop, and it led to his highest GISBT finish – a runner-up showing that netted a $325 payday. The big-hooking right-hander from Altoona, Iowa qualified in 6th, but quickly shot up the standings as the finals progressed. A big 278 in game #6 enabled him to surge into a tie for the lead, but his 176 in game #7 dropped him 91 pins behind the eventual champ.

Bianchi's 215 average in match play, and his 6-2 finals ledger were both the day's best. Bianchi has now qualified for 4 match play finals in his tour career, and he's become one of the tour's rising stars over the past year.

POWERFUL MORRIS TAKES 3rd

Jorell Morris has competed 3 times this season on tour, and this month was easily his best finish, as he qualified for the first match play finals of his promising career. The Pinole, California resident with the big strike ball was one of 4 southpaws in this month's boys finals and he would eventually wind up in 3rd place, hauling in a $250 scholarship for his work.

MONNENS FINISHES 4th

Jordan Monnens returned to the tour for the first time since last August's Tournament of Champions, and it led to a successful day on the lanes. The 2-handed lefty from Ham Lake, Minnesota rolled into contention, eventually finishing in 4th place. He won $225.

ABOUD BACK IN FINALS, PLACES 5th

Justin Aboud returned to the finals for the 5th time in his career. The San Jose, California native has been a major force in GISBT competition over the past 2 seasons; this time out, he finished in 5th place, earning a $200 scholarship for his efforts.

ERICKSON FINISHES 6th

Isaac Erickson has been a model of consistency this season. The versatile right-hander from Lititz, Pennsylvania has qualified for the match play finals in all 5 of his tour appearances this season. This month, he earned a $175 scholarship for his 6th place finish. With just 1 regular-season event on the schedule, Erickson finds himself in 2nd place in the race for the 2021-2022 Bowler of the Year.

ROSENBERG & BIERI 7th & 8th IN FINALS DEBUT

A pair of players enjoyed their first trip into the match play finals at this month's event. Kyle Rosenberg, a 2-handed lefty and Keaten Bieri, a promising 16 year-old, both enjoyed breakthrough performances in Cedar Rapids.

Kyle Rosenberg was one of 3 Californians in this month's match play finals. His first trip into the match play finals led to a 7th place showing and a $175 payday.

Meanwhile, Keaten Bieri rounded out this month's boy's finals field. The talented 16 year-old from Letts, Iowa qualified for the very first match play finals of his career, and he walked away with a $125 scholarship for his performance. Bowling appears to be in his blood, as his mother Tabitha was one of the tour's top performers more than 20 years ago, as she rolled into 13 match play finals during her career, which spanned from 1999 until 2001.

A special Thank You to Dave Wolfe & the entire staff at Cedar Rapids Bowling Center for once again welcoming the GISBT bowlers and their families and friends! They've been a proud host of GISBT competition since 2001, and we thank them for their continued support. Thanks CRBC!

MCCARTHY BECOMES 89th GIRLS CHAMPION

Katrina McCarthy has been knocking at the door of victory all season long, qualifying for the match play finals in all 5 of her tour appearances in 2021-2022. This month, she became the tour's newest champion, as she posted a dominating victory. The southpaw from Pelican Lake, Wisconsin became the 89th player to post a victory in girl's division history.

McCarthy qualified on top, but found herself just 3 pins ahead of a trio of players heading into the match play round. There, she was easily the sharpest of the half-dozen finalists. By averaging 215 for her 6 matches, and posting a perfect 6-0 record in match play, she pulled away from the field, winning by 231 pins.

McCarthy became the first lefty to grab a tour title in nearly 4½ years. Hayley Ryan was the most recent southpaw to reach the GISBT Winner's Circle; the Piqua, Ohio resident earned the final win of her 3 championships back in September 2017. The champion averaged 204.35 for her 14 games, and hauled in a $325 scholarship for her efforts. Congratulations, Katrina!

MORSE RUNNER-UP IN 50th TOUR APPEARANCE

Whittney Morse matched the best finish of her GISBT career this month, and it came in her 50th tour appearance. The right-hander from Muscatine, Iowa took home a $225 scholarship by virtue of her runner-up finish. Morse has now qualified for 11 match play finals in her career, and her runner-up finish matched her runner-up finish at the 2017 Tournament of Champions in Cedar Rapids. Morse will be recognized with a plaque celebrating her 50th tour event at her next appearance. She became just the 18th female player in the 30-season history of the GISBT to reach the 50-tournament plateau.

3-TIME CHAMP MADISON TAKES 3rd

Brynna Madison solidified her Bowler of the Year campaign with another solid finish at this month's tour stop. The Lincoln, Nebraska native has competed in all 6 tour events this season, and has now appeared in 5 match play finals. This time, she finished 3rd; the 3-time tour champ hauled in a $200 scholarship for her finish.

BILLS PLACES 4th

Marissa Bills continued her fine rookie season on tour. The right-hander stroker from Marion, Iowa qualified for her 3rd match play finals of the season. This month, she earned a $175 scholarship by virtue of her 4th place finish.

ALVARADO EARNS 5th

In the 4th tour appearance of her career, Tricia Alvarado qualified for her first match play finals. The right-hander from Bakersfield, California wound up finishing in 5th place, earning a $150 scholarship.

BODMAN TAKES 6th

Southpaw Lauren Bodman rounded out this month's match play finalists. The smooth-stroking lefty from Fruitland, Iowa finished 6th, capturing a $125 scholarship for her day's work.
