RED TOMATO FARM HOLDS APPRECIATION DAY FOR FIRST RESPONDERS

NEWVILLE—Red Tomato Farm & Inn will be honoring first responders at the farm on October 24th from 11 am – 1 pm to show their appreciation for the selfless heroes that put their lives on the line every day.

Firemen, Police, 911 Dispatchers and EMS and the community are invited to the farm for a hot dog and s'more at the fire pit. Friendship Hose Company 47 of Newville will have a fire truck and ambulance at the farm this day for tours as well.

“We felt that it was important to set aside time to thank all of the dedicated individuals in our communities that work many hours and often in challenging conditions to make sure that when someone needs help, they can be there for them.” explains Phil Wagoner, Farm Manager. “Not only is this event for First Responders, but for the community as well, to create the opportunity to thank our first responders personally.”
