

Giving the Gift of Friendship – Membership Application

Friends of the Calaveras County Library (FOTCCL) exists to promote the services offered by our community libraries, actively providing support for each of the eight branches in the county system.

“Friends” give this support through membership dues, book sales, special events, recycling, donations and more... “Friends” also volunteer their time to serve as board members, organize events, and help behind the scenes at library branches.
