

DUNN LORING DIVE CLUB

Job Description

DIVE TEAM COACH

A Dive Team Coach reports directly to the Team Reps who works in conjunction with the Personnel Committee and/or Members of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors reserves the right to dismiss the Dive Coach at any point during the season. A Dive Team Coach must be at least 16 years of age and acquire Lifeguard, CPR and First Aid Certifications before their first day of work. As a Dive Team Coach, you will be expected to work with and support the Head Dive Team Coach and Dive Team Reps in support of the following:

- Attend ALL pre-season training or team coordination meetings;
- Be present for ALL PRACTICES AND MEETS, and make-up practices as scheduled;
- Provide coaching and dive instruction to team members as directed by the Head Dive Coach;
- Help with A meet Diver selection;
- Be present and help coordinate ALL team pep rallies, banquets and other social events;
- Help set-up and take-down of the pool for meets and social events;
- Promote safety for all Divers at all times;
- Read and follow the Dunn Loring Dive Club Employee Handbook;
- Read, follow, and enforce the Dunn Loring Dive Club Code of Conduct;
- Agree to drug testing if requested;
- Other duties as assigned.

It is highly encouraged that Dive coaches be present for the entire Dive season and arrange for vacations to be before or after this period as each coach is expected to attend every practice and event during the season. If days off are required during the season, they must be submitted and approved in writing to the Team Reps before the contract is signed. Salary will be adjusted accordingly.

As a Dive Team Coach at Dunn Loring Dive Club, you are required to wear professionally appropriate clothing and divewear while working and to wear the provided coach shirts for meets.
