Deacons

After the priest, the deacon, in virtue of the sacred ordination he has received, holds first place among those who minister in the celebration of Holy Mass. It is known that the sacred order of the diaconate has been held in high honor in the Church even from the time of the Apostles, as Holy Scripture shows.

When he is present at the celebration of Holy Mass, at least one deacon should exercise his ministry, wearing sacred vestments, and joined if it would be useful by other deacons.

At Mass the deacon has his own part in proclaiming the Gospel, in announcing the intentions of the Prayer of the Faithful, in ministering to the priest, in preparing the altar and serving the celebration of the sacrifice, in distributing the Eucharist to the faithful, especially under the Precious Blood, and when necessary, sometimes in giving directions regarding the people's gestures and posture. Occasionally he may be asked to preach the homily.
