Next Meeting TBA

Old Business - None

New Business

- AAMHC was invited to co-host a clinic at Jamee Bornstein's facility in Spring 2020, nothing planned at this time. The location was discussed as to whether it was central enough to draw AAMHC members.
- Clinics
 - o Several topics were mentioned; therapy work, vet discussions, equine massage, carriage driving, nutrition, conditioning, show prep and equipment fitting.
 - o Amy & Gary offered to host the fall clinic.
 - Steph Coffey is looking for an established equine therapy group to come speak to the club. It was discussed to see if Dr. Helen Beck would be interested in doing the vet portion of the clinic. Amy & Gary Price would speak with Chloe Lansing regarding equine massage.
 - Connie Boldt was asked if she could assist with a carriage driving discussion possibly for next spring.
- 2020 Show
 - o We are booked at Kirkwood for June 13 & 14, 2020. We are no longer on Father's Day weekend and competing against Gordyville. Edna Wood made a motion to keep the show a two day show with 4 judges, Gary Price seconded the motion.
 - o Jamee Bornstein volunteered to do sponsorships for the 2020 show.
 - o Deb Robinson volunteered to put together goodie bags for our youth competitors for the show.
- Journal Ad
 - o Club ad has run in the Journal the last 4 publications. The club is just now receiving an invoice.
 - o If your farm/business is in this ad, please contact Gary Price by Sep 1st, 2019 to discuss. If you're not included in this ad but would like to be, please contact Gary Price by Sep 1st.
