

FLAMBOROUGH HEAD : The east facing cliff at South Landing, more exposed to the dominant high energy waves that approach from the north east.

Notice how only large borders remain on the wave cut platform, and clay supplied to the cliff base has been removed by waves.

