The newest location of Walk-On's Bistreaux & Bar is open in Hoover.

The family sports bar franchise has opened at 6401 Tattersall Park Drive.

The new restaurant is owned by Matt Roth, Kirk Broussard, Johnny Cutrera and Jacob Cutrera and locally operated by former Alabama quarterback John Parker Wilson, and Smylie Kaufman. Craig Steltz of the Chicago Bears and Josh Scobee of the Jacksonville Jaguars are also investors in the local restaurant. The franchise is co-owned by NFL quarterback Drew Brees.

Walk-On's plans to hire up to 250 in Hoover. For more information about applying, visit here. The franchise has more than 100 locations in development in 15 states.

Its menu ranges from the Smoked Gouda Turkey Burger, Boom Boom Shrimp Poyboy and Cajundillas, as well as Mardi Gras Mahi, and Duck and Andouille Gumbo. Its innovative menu provides vast and flavorful dishes for every guest.
