Did you know? ... thanks to your generosity CAFOD and its partner agencies are responding to the devastation caused by cyclone Idai reaching thousands of vulnerable people with life-saving food, clean water, and hygiene kits. We are working around the clock to get aid to where it's needed, a life-line to families made homeless by the flood waters of Cyclone Idai. One of the families to receive support was Juan and Anita Lopez Paulo. Anita said, "We were hiding in our house when the roof ripped off. The following day the flooding came at us from both sides. We have lost everything." Please keep all those affected by cyclone Idai in your prayers.
