Pentecost Sunday

Amy Overton-Harris

Song Shout to the North Maranatha Music

Call to Worship:

O God:

Open us to the powerful winds of your Spirit.

Open us to the wonders of your creation.

Open our ears to the words of justice and truth.

Open our mouths to the taste of freedom and love.

Open our arms to the touch of our global community. (Michael Bausch)

Joys and Concerns (please send me your joys and concerns for prayer)

- Prayers for getting the vaccine out equally to every community and person.
- Prayer and action needed to combat the travesty and inequality in voting rights.
- Prayers for teachers and children as some join in hybrid in-person school days.
- Prayers for Norm Parker's health. And prayers for Loyce and all the family.
- Prayers for justice and peace in Israel and Palestine.

Affirmation of Faith for Pentecost (Ruth Duck)

We believe in God, the Creator Spirit,

Who moved upon the face of the deep at the beginning of creation,

Who created all that is,

Who spoke through the prophet of old.

We believe in Christ Jesus,

Into whom God's Spirit was poured in fullness and in power,
That the whole creation might be restored and unified;
And who promised that the Spirit would come
And fill the people with power to witness to the mighty love of God.

We wait on that Spirit today with longing in our hearts,
Seeking to be empowered by God's love in Jesus,
With fresh words and courageous actions of love and hope.

Glory be to God – Creator- Christ- and Holy Spirit, now and always. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Acts 2: 1-18

2 When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. 2 Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. 3 They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. 4 All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues<sup>[a]</sup> as the Spirit enabled them.

5 Now there were staying in Jerusalem God-fearing Jews from every nation under heaven. 6 When they heard this sound, a crowd came together in bewilderment, because each one heard their own language being spoken. 7 Utterly amazed, they asked: "Aren't all these who are speaking Galileans?" 8 Then how is it that each of us hears them in our native language? 9 Parthians, Medes and Elamites; residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia,<sup>[b]</sup> 10 Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene; visitors from Rome 11 (both Jews and converts to Judaism); Cretans and Arabs—we hear them declaring the wonders of God in our own tongues!" 12 Amazed and perplexed, they asked one another, "What does this mean?"

<sup>13</sup> Some, however, made fun of them and said, "They have had too much wine."<sup>14</sup> Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd: "Fellow Jews and all of you who live in Jerusalem, let me explain this to you; listen carefully to what I say. <sup>15</sup> These people are not drunk, as you suppose. It's only nine in the morning! <sup>16</sup> No, this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel:

<sup>17</sup> "'In the last days, God says,
I will pour out my Spirit on all people.
Your sons and daughters will prophesy,
your young men will see visions,
your old men will dream dreams.

<sup>18</sup> Even on my servants, both men and women,
I will pour out my Spirit in those days,
and they will prophesy.
