

Love & Care Healthcare Services

"Treating your family like our own."

JOB DESCRIPTION
Companion or Sitter

Job Summary:

The companion or sitter is a caregiver trained in the area of companionship/sitter services, household operations, including home management and housekeeping.

Qualifications:

The companion or sitter must meet the following requirements:
Successful completion of training of demonstrate understanding and practical competency in the following areas:

Understanding the needs of the elderly, handicapped, or convalescing individuals; meal preparation and servicing; transportation and escort services; housekeeping to include sanitation; home safety; handling medical emergencies in home and infection control.

Performance Requirements:

Must possess patience and tact in working with the elderly or disabled clients. Work under the close supervision of the agency supervisor. Must maintain current Tuberculosis Test, CPR/First Aide certification, have reliable transportation and a working contact telephone number.

Job Functions:

The companion or sitter will follow the plan of care for the individual client. The care plan may include any of the following:

- Observe and report changes in client condition
- Meal preparation and assistance with eating
- Routine housekeeping including laundry, changing the bed linens, dusting, washing dishes, light vacuuming, and other light household duties
- Run errands as necessary, pick up prescriptions, accompany on medical appointments
- Home management to include grocery shopping, paying bills, and maintaining a safe and clean environment
- Provide watchful supervision and oversight during absence of the caregiver

I clearly understand the contents of this Job Description:

Employee Signature

Date