First Sunday of Lent
Matthew 4:1-11

“Jesus was led by the Spirit into the desert to be tempted by the devil.”

It is difficult to understand how the devil could tempt Jesus, the Second Person of the Holy Trinity, in the desert, and then take him to three places to offer him rewards if He will bow down and worship the devil. Consider the places: the desert, a place of seclusion; the parapet of the temple, the highest point of the building that contained the Tablets with the Ten Commandments; a very high mountain, the place where people in the time of Jesus believed they were closest to God. The devil tempts Jesus with physical security - an unending supply of bread; power to amaze and influence the hearts and minds of people; and power over the lives and destiny of others. Jesus responds by commanding Satan to worship and serve God alone. Through the story of the Temptation Jesus warns us about the things that will tempt us to choose not to worship and serve God, and gives us an example of how to respond.

Men’s Discernment Retreat March 31st-April 2nd

The Office of Vocations is hosting a Men’s Discernment Retreat for men ages 18-25 who are seriously thinking about a vocation to priesthood and who have the desire to courageously give their lives to Christ. This retreat is an opportunity to set some time out in silence to listen to the voice of God in your life, listen to inspiring talks and guidance for the discernment process, learn the tools of discernment, sharpen your discerning skills and have a one-on-one visit/spiritual direction with a priest. The Men’s Discernment Retreat will be held March 31-April 2nd at St. Meinrad Seminary and School of Theology. There is no cost to attend. Registration deadline is March 27th.

Anyone interested can register at www.owensborovocations.com

Gaspar River Summer Camps
Made for More Camp & other exciting camps
Various Dates in May-July

The Made for More Camp, June 25-28, 2017 is for young men in high school (those who have completed 9th grade-those that have graduated this year, 2017). It is for men who have the courage to begin asking such questions as: What am I supposed to do with my life? or What does God want me to do with my life? This camp is for those who want to give their lives to the One who gave His life for us. Whether they are being called to marriage, priesthood, consecrated life, or single missionary life, this camp will assist them in their discernment.

If your child is interested in attending the Made for More or any other summer camp, check out the Gasper River Retreat Center’s website at gasperriverretreatcenter.org. Our parish can help with the cost of registration for our FFY students who wish to attend. Please contact Paula at the office for more information.

Rice Bowls are available at the back of the Church. Please pick up one or more for your household.

Sexual abuse of a minor or vulnerable person is a crime according to both state and Church law, and there is help and healing possible. To report to civil authorities, call local law enforcement at (270) 928-2122 or the Kentucky Child Abuse Hotline (toll-free: 1-877-KYSAFE1; 1-877-597-2331). To report abuse by Church personnel (paid or unpaid), either past or present, please call the confidential phone line of the Pastoral Assistance Coordinator at 270-852-8380. A full explanation of the Diocese’s response to sexual abuse concerns can be found in the revised sexual abuse policy, effective July 1, 2014, which can be found (e.g. in the back of church, on the parish bulletin board, in the book rack, in the parish office and also on the Diocesan web site (www.rcdok.org/safe)).
