

BIOGRAPHY

Jennifer J. Clark joined Professional HOA Consultants, Inc. in July 2001. She brought with her the degree of Bachelor of Business Administration with a concentration in Finance, as well as, eight years of experience in the financial services industry.

Jennifer was originally employed to work in the accounting department managing Accounts Payable but has had many different responsibilities over the years.

She was promoted to Vice President of Administration in November 2013 followed by Chief Financial Officer in May 2018. Jennifer is extremely detail oriented and organized, which help her thrive professionally in a business environment.

She is a faithful member of her church and currently resides in La Mesa with her husband and son.

Jennifer J. Clark, BBA
Chief Financial Officer

