March 26, 2017
Fourth Sunday of Lent
John 9:1-41

Jesus said to the Pharisees, "If you were blind, you would have no sin;

But now you are saying, 'We see,' so your sin remains." Socrates observed, "The only true wisdom is in knowing you know nothing." Throughout history people have been harmed or killed, and resources have been wasted, by people in power who were too ignorant to know what they did not know and people who know what they promote or impose on others is not true, but do it for reasons of prestige or profit or power. Jesus knew that the Pharisees, and the more powerful Sadducees, imposed laws and requirements on the uneducated people that they either knew, or were not certain, were not what God intended but served their own purposes. The false teaching that illness or injuries were a sign of punishment from God is an example. Jesus healed the man blind from birth to challenge that teaching and the wisdom of those who used it to control and oppress people. Do we have the wisdom to know that there is much about God and our Catholic faith that we do not know? Are we wise enough to accept that we must constantly seek truth? Jesus expects nothing less.

Sexual abuse of a minor or vulnerable person is a crime according to both state and Church law, and there is help and healing possible. To report to civil authorities, call local law enforcement at (270) 928-2122 or the Kentucky Child Abuse Hotline (toll-free: 1-877-KYSAFE1; 1-877-597-2331). To report abuse by Church personnel (paid or unpaid), either past or present, please call the confidential phone line of the Pastoral Assistance Coordinator at 270-852-8380. A full explanation of the Diocese's response to sexual abuse concerns can be found in the revised sexual abuse policy, effective July 1, 2014, which can be found (e.g. in the back of church, on the parish bulletin board, in the book rack, in the parish office and also on the Diocesan web site (www.rcdiok.org/safe)).
