

Kohr, Genevieve

Genevieve M. Kohr, 92, of Pigeon passed away Monday, Oct. 7, 2002, at Courtney Manor in Bad Axe following a brief illness. She was born in Saginaw on Aug. 14, 1910, the daughter of the late John T. and Mary Ann (Slattery) Gaynor. She graduated from Detroit Cathedral High School in 1928 and attended the Detroit Business Institute for two years. On March 12, 1932, she was united in marriage to Donald Edwin Kohr in Detroit. He preceded her in death on June 6, 1990. Mrs. Kohr worked as secretary for a Detroit law firm for five years prior to moving to Huron County in 1948. She was a homemaker throughout her lifetime and was known as an excellent baker and seamstress. She was a member of the Caseville Library Club and the Young Mothers Club. Mrs. Kohr was a member of St. Roch Catholic Church in Caseville as well as the Women's Society at the church. She loved to play bridge and enjoyed golfing and was an active member of the Scenic Golf and Country Club. Her survivors include two sons, William R. Kohr and his wife, Mary Jane, of Duluth, Ga. and John P. Kohr and his wife, Dianne, of Pigeon; seven grandchildren, Jill, Jackie, Bobby, Kathy, Carrie, John Jr. and Susan; nine great-grandchildren; a brother-in-law, John Helms of Bay Port; and two nephews, a niece, and their families. She was preceded in death by a granddaughter, Frances. The Mass of Christian Burial will be conducted at 11 a.m. Thursday, Oct. 10, 2002, at St. Francis Borgia Catholic Church in Pigeon, with Fr. George Serour and Sr. Theresa Fox, O.P. officiating. Burial will be in St. Roch Catholic Cemetery. Visitation will be from 2 to 9 p.m. Wednesday at the Meyersieck-Bussema Funeral Home in Pigeon and from 10 a.m. until the time of service Thursday at the church. Memorials for Mrs. Kohr may be made to St. Francis Borgia Catholic Church or the American Diabetes Association.
