The O'Rourke Irish Dancers participated in the World Irish Dancing Championships in April, which was the first to be held in the United States. The White Plains Irish Step Dancing School sent 24 dancers to compete. Pictured here is one of three Ceili Teams (8 person group dancing) who participated, placing 31st out of 104 teams. The O'Rourke Irish Dancers will be giving a recital on May 29 at Highlands Middle School (see Calendar of Events for further details).
