Experience The History. The Hospitality. The Luxury.

Centrally located between Baton Rouge and New Orleans, Nottoway Plantation sits elegantly along the Louisiana Great River Road Scenic Byway, standing guard over the Mississippi River for 160 years. Completed in 1859, Nottoway is the South's largest remaining antebellum mansion; her massive white columns and grand balconies exude elegance while the spectacular three-story rotunda overlooks sweeping, oak-draped lawns.

As a AAA Four-Diamond property, and a member of the Historic Hotels of America, Nottoway Plantation & Resort offers guests plentiful options for a relaxing stay, from tours and meals to overnight getaways. Covering 31 acres, Nottoway has 40 deluxe overnight rooms, including four suites, along with luxury amenities, ample event space, and unforgettable gracious southern hospitality. Come experience the history, the hospitality, and the luxury of Nottoway Plantation & Resort.

Explore the Grandeur & History of Nottoway.

Completed in 1859, Nottoway's 53,000 square foot palatial mansion awes thousands of visitors a year who come to see such extravagant features as soaring 15 1/2' ceilings, enormous 11-foot doors, 22 massive exterior columns, hand-carved Italian marble fireplaces, exquisitely detailed plaster frieze moldings, and a pure white ballroom. Tours of this stunningly-restored sugarcane estate are just the beginning of what you will find here.

Mansion Tours:

Let one of our friendly and knowledgeable costumed tour guides lead you through the Mansion's spectacular rooms as they share with you the details of Nottoway's original owner, John Hampden Randolph, construction of his Henry Howard designed home, the history of slavery at the estate, as well as the mansion's survival over 160 years. Guided mansion tours last approximately one hour.

Self-Guided Audio Tours:

Our audio tours let you experience Nottoway in an entirely new way! Enjoy the flexibility of touring the mansion and grounds at your own pace as the "voice of John Randolph" guides you and shares the history and stories of Nottoway. You will receive a map, with numbers marking each point of interest, allowing you to explore at your leisure.

Museum:

Following your tour, visit our museum to learn even more about the history of the plantation, view artifacts from Nottoway's original owners, and watch a short film about the Randolph family.
