

G. Stephen Spears

Steve Spears retired to Saint Simons Island after an impressive corporate career in International Human Resources. He established his own International Human Resources consulting firm and managed the global Human Resources organization for Fragomen, Del Rey, Bersen and Loewy, LLP, the largest global immigration law firm. Fragomen was headquartered in New York City and had offices across the US and in 7 countries. Over his long career, Steve served in various executive positions of increasing responsibility including Vice President Global Human Resources with Schering-Plough Corporation in Kenilworth, New Jersey. He managed the Eucan Region and had responsibility for Western, Central and Eastern Europe, Canada, Middle East and Africa. He also served as Human Resources Director for the Coca-Cola Corporation and handled the Central Europe and Russia Division out of Budapest, Hungary. He was also Senior HR management team member for the Coca-Cola Eurasia Division in Istanbul, Turkey, and the Central Mediterranean Division in Milan, Italy.

EDUCATION

- MASTERS IN PUBLIC PERSONNEL ADMINISTRATION
 - UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA, Athens, Georgia
- BACHELOR OF SCIENCE, PUBLIC RELATIONS
 - UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA, Gainesville, Florida