

Holz, Marion

Marion M. Holz, 67, of Bay City and formerly of Bad Axe, died Friday, July 7, 2006, at Brian's House. Marion was born in Bad Axe on January 21, 1939 to the late Spencer and Edith (Doyle) Toner. She married Matthew Holz on September 8, 1962 in Bad Axe. She resided most of her life in Bad Axe and was a member of Our Savior Lutheran Church in Bad Axe. She owned and operated Marion's Beauty Shop in Fillion retiring in 1968. Mrs. Holz is survived by two daughters and a son, Christy Eicher, of Elkton, Judi Zima, of Bay City, and Bill (Tammie) Holz, of Bad Axe; two grandchildren, Keaton Holz and Ashley Burdetsky; three sisters and two brothers. She was preceded in death by husbands, Gary L. Eicher and Matthew Holz; son, Eric Holz; one sister; and two brothers. A committal service will be conducted at 10 a.m. on Saturday, July 15, 2006, at Colfax Cemetery, Bad Axe. Those considering an expression of sympathy are asked to consider the Visiting Nurse Services of Michigan, Bay City for Brian's House. Arrangements are being handled by the Hyatt-Ewald Funeral Home, Bay City.