

KIFA's OPEN PAINTING

THURSDAYS 10:00 am to 3:00 pm beginning Thursday September 12.

“Creativity Takes Courage.”

Henri Matisse had it right.

If you are frustrated with your painting going nowhere, then this is for you! If you tend to over paint your work and end up putting it up in your attic with dozens of other "failed" paintings, then this is for you! If you like to paint with other like-minded people but don't necessarily want to take classes, then this is for you!

The "this" is a weekly session of Open Painting to be held in the Classroom at KIFA. We will provide desktop easels, plastic for the tables, and water. You provide everything else including paints, brushes, canvases or paper, rags or paper towels, containers for water or mineral spirits. Please DO NOT bring turpentine if you plan to paint in oils...Turpenoid or some other odorless turpentine only!

A volunteer artist will be there to check you in and show you the basic setup of the tables. The very reasonable fee for these sessions will be $15 for the five hours; half days (3 hours) will be $9.

After a few weeks, you will be on the Honor System and we will provide a sign-in sheet and envelope. Cash only please, and exact change would be appreciated. Bring lunch if you like; we always have water and coffee. Since we have no way of knowing who will be coming, please email Lee at lee3343@gmail.com if you plan to come that week.

Questions? Call the KIFA office at 410-643-7424 or contact Lee Butera at lee3343@gmail.com.
