Workshop

Presenting Agencies:

Northwest Weather Service (NWS), Lane County Public Health, and University of Oregon.

Each year we gather to learn what the winter might bring us. Come hear from the National Weather Service about their outlook for ice and snow; the flu outlook from the Lane County Public Health Department; and the University of Oregon will walk us through the tool we use locally to communicate between agencies during a winter-weather response, the Basecamp platform.

Presentations followed by Q&A time.

THE COALITION WORKS COLLABORATIVELY TO INCREASE COMMUNITY AND ORGANIZATIONAL DISASTER RESILIENCE
