Sunday Meditation

Even if the only blessing of the Gospel were eternal glory shared with Christ, it would still be the most astounding bargain we could imagine. The unspeakable bliss and ecstasy of heaven more than balance the troubles of this life. "I consider that the sufferings of this present life are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us" (Rom. 8:18). But that incredible future blessing is not the whole story. Far from it! The Christian life affords us many wonderful advantages: forgiveness of sins, peace of heart, fellowship in God's family, the Heavenly Father's daily guidance and care, the indwelling Spirit and all that gives us, all spiritual blessings, and Heaven besides. I don't say that men would gladly suffer the trials of life without the hope of heaven. But we Christians enjoy the blessings of salvation with heaven thrown in for good measure. All for Jesus, Richard

We are in need of nursery & Kingdom Kids volunteers. Please join our helper team and sign up on the involvement board by the front foyer!

Anchor Youth Join us Saturday, Oct. 13th in the evening for dinner & Tribulation Trial!

This event will walk you through Revelations and truly make an impression! Bring your friends! I MUST have an RSVP by Sunday, Oct. 7th. The tickets are pre-purchase only and you will not have a ticket if you don't rsvp. This event is for mature 6-12th graders. If you have questions see Adrian or Mark.

A worship time for ages 3-5 during the message time of adult worship. The kids will learn Biblical lessons each week & do a craft. The Kingdom Kids room is located in the foyer, to the left, as you exit the doors. The green trees on the wall make it easy to find. The children will re-join us after the service during the announcements.
