

Sarah Stone

Merchant Tailor/Proprietor
The Perfect Shirt
sarah@perfectshirtusa.com

Sarah is a San Antonio native who is known for excelling across industries, including the non-profit and direct sales sectors. Sarah has a skill of networking and relationship-building unmatched by her peers, which led her to meet Robert Bucheit in 2016, a “Texas Transplant” known for bespoke menswear success in the Midwest.

Bucheit founded The Perfect Shirt in 2016 and Sarah immediately joined the team as the first Brand Partner. The Perfect Shirt is a bespoke menswear company that is making custom clothing the norm. The line includes everyday shirting options such as button downs and workwear, weekend and travel linen, as well as black tie shirting options. Sarah culled her business and was able to leave her 8-5 grind to dedicate her time to The Perfect Shirt full-time in November 2017. Sarah continued to bring sizeable business to the company and seized the opportunity to purchase The Perfect Shirt in 2018 and has never looked back. The growth of menswear is exponential nationwide, including in San Antonio. Clients range from the everyday gentleman to business leaders to music influencers. The future for The Perfect Shirt is endless; expanding offerings and finishings are the forefront of the company vision.

Sarah holds a Master’s Degree from Texas State University and in her free time she enjoys competing in Crossfit competitions and reading at The Twig Book Shop. Her mantra is , Wherever you Shop, Shop Local. Follow Sarah’s journey at @sarahmargaret86 and @perfectshirtusa