SHOW DESCRIPTION

CHRIS BLAZE THE FIRE NINJA (30 to 40 min show)

Chris Blaze is now known worldwide as " the fire ninja" of all ninjas. Many call him the new age "street Fighter" as he moves and looks like he just came straight out of the arcade game ready to perform and show off his skills.

Over a +10 year career Chris has learnt the art of fire in a very usual way, It is known throughout the world that "if you play with fire you get burnt" but for this dare devil it is very far from the truth, with his intolerance to burning and lack of fear Chris definitely takes this show to new highs and explosive boundaries.

Throughout the show you will see things you never thought possible like:

- Fire being transferred directly off the mouth from one torch to the other,
- A fireball that is manipulated off a long rope (Full street fighter style)
- A dragon staff that has more fire on it than any other prop/equipment known to mankind
- For the finale a big explosion is made by a prop most fire performers haven't even heard of called a chain staff (Big WOW Factor)

Check out the show for much more.

Over the years Chris has successfully changed into a complete street style act by interacting with the audience and Mid show asking a small kid on stage to dance and jump through a hoop of fire (The fire hoop is a JOKE, not real fire), besides that Blaze also dresses him/her up in a superman outfit to help throughout the rest of the show and to keep the fun alive and finally at the end giving him/her a prize(the 40min show).

This dynamic masterpiece of fire manipulation and ninja style acrobatics is just the show you have been looking for as he is only one of a handful of people in the world that can deliver most of the tricks performed.

So come down watch the amazing show as you may never get the chance again.

The show with it's great effects is something that needs to be seen for sure!

NO FIRE USED AT ANY POINT WITH THE CHILDREN, VERY SAFE !!!!!
